These symptoms can manifest as reporting late for their tour of duty, excessive sick days, a cluster of minor complaints from the public, outbursts of anger and an excessive number of use of force reports. To assist employees and reduce the need for discipline after the fact, the City of Greer has established an Employee Assistance Program. This program provides for both self referrals by the employee and mandatory referrals from an employee's supervisor. The Employee Assistance Program should be utilized whenever applicable.

B. Supervisors shall maintain a personnel jacket on each of their employees. The jacket should contain copies of past evaluations, counseling forms, notes on casual conferences and any other documentation regarding their conduct. VI. COMMENDATIONS AND AWARDS

The Greer Police Department acknowledges that the recognition of positive performance is a proactive form of discipline. To assure this acknowledgement, the following awards and procedures are established. Commendations and awards can be initiated by any supervisor. Any employee may nominate another employee by notifying a supervisor of the circumstances warranting recognition.

A. Complimentary Letters

This award refers to correspondence received thanking, complimenting, expressing appreciation, or commending employees for performing tasks in a courteous, efficient or expedient manner. Whenever a complimentary letter or email is received by any employee it will be forwarded through the chain of command to the office of the Chief of Police for posting on the Department’s information board and inclusion in the employee's personnel file.

B. Letter of Appreciation

This method may be utilized by the Chief of Police, Command Staff members or any supervisor to express appreciation to an employee for any performance that does not qualify for a higher award but is deserving of recognition. This is essentially the same as the Complimentary Letter referred to in the previous paragraph except that it is generated in-house.

C. Memorandum of Recognition

This correspondence is for one or more employees who have performed in an exemplary manner. An example is an employee, whose conduct required police work performed in a manner above and beyond the call of duty, i.e., closing several related crimes by conscientious work, being alert and apprehending a person involved in a serious crime.
A memorandum style, as opposed to letter style, will be used for this type of recognition from the Chief of Police.

D. Commendation

The commendation would be utilized to recognize those of bravery above and beyond the call of duty, such as a lifesaving action, or an event which involves personal risk and a demonstration of judgment, zeal, or ingenuity not normally involved in the performance of duties. The commendation will be prepared on the appropriate form and will contain three paragraphs. A brief opening paragraph will concisely state what has been brought to the Chief's attention and by whom. That will be followed by a second paragraph which will be a synopsis of the event. The final paragraph will consist of the Chief's statement of the reason for the commendation.
