AT HOME IN THE CITY OF GREER

A Coloring and Activity Book to Help Children Learn More about City Government and Services

Featuring art by Greer native Roy Miller
Located next to City Park, Greer City Hall is home to Administrative, Finance, Building and Development Standards and Events Offices. The entire second floor has space for events and Greer City Council meetings.
The City of Greer has more than 20 parks available to residents, including the popular Kids Planet at Century Park and Greer City Park. Smaller neighborhood parks allow children to play close to their homes.
Greer City Park is a fun place to play. The Park Fountain is colored for special occasions and “dances” to music.
City of Greer firefighters are always ready to help in case there is an emergency.
City of Greer police officers - including K-9 officers Boss and Stryker - patrol the city to keep residents safe.
The Mayor is elected at-large, meaning he represents ALL City of Greer residents. He presides over Greer City Council, represents the city at special events and presents proclamations and keys to the city to recognize honors and achievements.
Each member of Greer City Council is elected to represent one of six districts in the city. They must live in the district they represent.
Connect the dots.

Greer

City of Greer, SC
The City Administrator is appointed by the Mayor and City Council to manage the day-to-day operations of the city.
The City of Greer Parks and Recreation Department offers residents many ways to enjoy physical activities. Can you find 10 team and individual activities in the puzzle below? Words may appear forward, backward or diagonally.
Baseball is one of the most popular youth sports offered by the City of Greer Parks and Recreation Department.
Weekly trash collection is an important service offered by the City of Greer to keep neighborhoods, streets and homes clean.
The city also collects recyclable items curbside. Paper, plastics, glass, aluminum and more may also be dropped off at the City Recycling Center.
The Municipal Courtroom is used by many different agencies.
The Police and Court Complex opened in 2008 at the corner of Main and Poinsett Streets. It offers modern conveniences for the public.
The City of Greer keeps online residents updated on news and events through its website at www.cityofgreer.org, Twitter, Facebook, YouTube, and other social media.
Only two of the banners and light poles below are the same. Can you find and color them?
Festivals are lots of fun in the City of Greer. The International Festival at Greer City Park helps people learn more about cultures, games, and food from around the world.
Freedom Blast provides music, games, military displays, food, and an opportunity to say “Thank You” to veterans and those currently serving in the U.S. Armed Forces.
The City Park Pond is a popular place to walk and enjoy quiet time in a swing overlooking the gazebo. Can you draw the other half of the gazebo below?
Bicycles are a popular way to get around the City of Greer. The city is making trails exclusively for walkers and bikers.
Greer City Park Amphitheater is the place to be on Thursday nights during the summer for Moonlight Movies!
Untangle the hose to put the fire out.
Learn more about the City of Greer’s history at the Greer Heritage Museum located on South Main Street.
Building inspectors make sure buildings meet codes and are safe to occupy.
Crossword Puzzle

Across
1. Firemen put out ______ with water.
2. Fire trucks have ______ colored lights on top.
3. It’s fun to play at Greer City _______.
4. Police cars have ______ colored lights on top.

Down
5. The Mayor has an office at ____________.
6. The City of ________ is a great place to live.
Santa makes the City of Greer one of his first stops during the holidays, joining families for breakfast and helping to light the city tree.
Greer Station is a great place for all members of the family to shop and enjoy a delicious meal.
Help the police officer find his way through the maze and locate K-9 Officer Stryker.
What makes the City of Greer a great place to live? Parks, family-friendly events, services such as trash collection, popular businesses and restaurants, and city employees ready to serve you.
The Greer Children’s Theatre stages entertaining shows throughout the year, introducing young people to the fun and excitement of live theater.
Play Tic-Tac-Toe with your friends.
A native of Greer, S.C., Roy Miller is an illustrator in the classic tradition. Educated in illustration and interior design at the Philadelphia College of Art, his work has graced the covers of the Strawbridge & Clothier Christmas catalog and has appeared in the Toronto Star, Ebony, the Saturday Evening Post children’s magazines, Inside Magazine, the Jewish Exponent, and The Greer Citizen. His work has been highlighted at the Greer Heritage Museum and an example of his building artwork hangs in the Greer State Bank boardroom.